

How to Volunteer with the ACFD

Want to give back to your community, help someone in their time of need, and learn lifesaving skills, all while being a part of a great team? Volunteer with the Annville-Cleona Fire Department!

FIRST

Express your Interest

Contact the Annville-Cleona Fire Department through their Facebook page. Just send a message letting us know you are interested.

NEXT

Find your Path

There are a variety of volunteer opportunities available at the Annville-Cleona Fire Department. Consider your strengths and define your comfort level when deciding what position you want to begin training for.

THEN

Train and Prepare

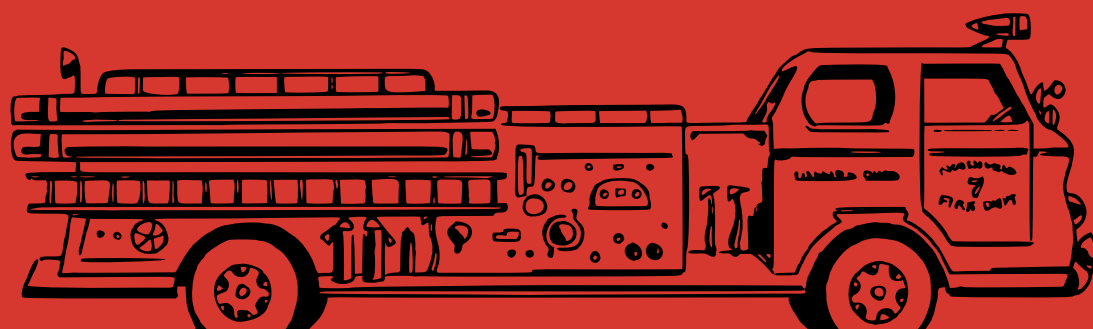

Depending on the position(s) you want to do, you will likely complete a series of training sessions, each qualifying you for a different task.

LAST

Give Back

Once all the training is complete you are officially a part of the Annville-Cleona Fire Department and can finally go out on calls and save lives!
